

About the SBI™ Event

“I believe that game changing your organisation’s performance is much easier than many might imagine and I would like to share with you how these performance gains can be delivered in practice” Ashley Bookman, CEO, Momentum

Systemic Business Improvement™ (SBI) focuses on transforming the often unconscious thought processes and attitudes which are the real underlying cause of all organisational problems. The approach provides an organisation-wide frame of reference which improves employee engagement, enhances cross-functional working and transforms leadership vision and behaviour. It delivers significant reform to anything which impacts human, operational and financial efficiency.

How will you/your organisation benefit from this event?

The event will build an understanding of exactly how thinking and mindsets within an organisation can significantly support or hinder its performance, share best practice and experience from leading organisations and provide practical guidance for those leading change. Participants will also have the opportunity to network share ideas and experiences with each other and to our expert team.

“The event was stimulating, inspiring and highlighted the benefits of keeping an open mind and different ways of thinking to drive organisational performance. The methods of delivering real cultural change were practical, achievable and really resonated.”

Anna Storti, Head of SME Deposits | Head of Home Insurance | Virgin Money
